

Faculty & Staff Stewardship Award

Instructions:

- Nomination form must include a letter of recommendation.
- Letter of recommendation should demonstrate the nominee's persistence & commitment to high-quality stewardship efforts, and how stewardship has improved their program, relationships with donors and fundraising efforts.
- Optional attachments may include: publications, articles, donor feedback, and other related data.
- Deadline: April 7, 2023

Questions to think about for a stronger recommendation letter:

Are the nominee's stewardship efforts innovative?

What are some of the positive outcomes of this faculty/staff member's excellent stewardship efforts (donor gave another gift, took on a leadership role, connected another supporter to the university, etc.)?
